

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN: WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 1, 1882.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Colonel Gregg, formerly superintendent of the Southern Railroad, died in Lynchburg Saturday last.

Mr. Pierre Bernard, husband of the late Caroline Barnes-Bernard, will continue to reside in Richmond, Wytheville.

The two commissioners have been appointed: Michael Wilson, Madison Court-House; Robert E. Davis, Totaro, Brunswick County.

Williamson's or Clifton Forge, as formerly known, is to be called Clifton. It contains now nearly eight hundred inhabitants. It is the junction of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad and the Richmond and Alleghany.

ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS.

The regular monthly meeting of the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Company will be held to-night.

There were no criminal cases before the mayor Tuesday. The two saloon-keepers reported for violating Sunday law paid their dues and were discharged.

United States Bank Examiner Austin Adams visited the National Banks in this city yesterday and found them all in good condition, except one which was found corrupt in every particular.

The Washington and Ohio Railroad was sold Tuesday to Casper G. Lee for $200,000. Mr. Lee is a native of this parish. He is the son of Mr. Hayt, who represents the Baltimore, Cincinnati and Western Railroad Company. Mr. Hayt was formerly a member of Congress. He is now 70 years old. Once a slave, he became a prominent man, first in politics, then in business, and finally in law. He is now a member of the Western Railroad Company. The Virginia Midland road was sold about two years ago on such terms that it is now in the hands of the new owners, the road will give nearly thirty-three per cent. on the bonds.

An unusual term of the County Court Judge James Sartorius, presiding, was held at the county house in this city Tuesday. Commonwealth vs. Grant Campbell, indicted for burglary; jury, and over 1000 dollars. The defendant was represented by Mr. John Green, who was then discharged. After the verdict of the jury acquitting Campbell, the case of The City of Alexandria against Alonzo Jacobs, a colored man, was covered over about $1000 board for one Jacobs, a pauper of the county, who has been in the city's almshouse for a year and a half, and is still there till the next term of the court. The court then adjourned.

Mrs. J. W. MANSON, of Waterly, Ill., says: "The St. Jacob's Oil is the grandest medicine for neuralgia I ever saw. I have frequently used this oil and can assure you it is the best. I am greatly relieved by it. I am a German Remedy. I commenced using it about a year ago, and would not live without it for anything. I have a son-in-law, who, if it were possible, has greater faith in this oil than in any medicine in himself. It cured him of a terrible attack of rheumatism, and he wears by us."
